

Grand Valley Power's Hometown Relief Fund Application

At Grand Valley Power, electricity is an essential need for everyone. We know that many of our members are suffering financially because of the coronavirus pandemic. In these unprecedented times, members who have been impacted by the pandemic and are at risk for future disconnect due to financial hardships, are eligible to receive a one-time $100 bill credit on a residential Grand Valley Power electric bill.

Complete your application below. Applications will be reviewed on an ongoing basis and are subject to approval and available funds.

Grand Valley Power will distribute funds once a week, so please allow 14 business days to see a credit to your account. You will also receive an email or mailed letter when we add these funds to your account.
