

COLORING FOR TROOPS – GRAND VALLEY POWER COLORING PAGE CONTEST

Grand Valley Power is dedicated to serving the communities we live in and this year we have chosen to support Operation Interdependence. This nation-wide organization provides military care packages and support to active military members and veterans at home. Their care packages are hand packed by volunteers and include small items like games, snacks, and personalized notes, cards or pictures.

Grand Valley Power needs your help and support! Operation Interdependence is always in need of letters of appreciation to our troops. Care packages are not sent to troops unless each box contains a thank you note, card or picture for each soldier.

How you can help?

You can help by coloring a picture provided by Grand Valley Power which can be found by visiting gvp.org/Hometown-Partnerships. Please color your picture using only markers, coloring pencils or crayons – no glitter can be used in your artwork.

This Contest is open to legal residents of Mesa County, Colorado who enter the Contest as a parent or legal guardian on behalf of a child whose age is thirteen (13) years or younger at the time of entry.

To thank you for your efforts, GVP will be drawing the names of three contest applicants. Winners will receive a $50 gift card to one of the following establishments:

Bananas Fun Park – Grand Junction, CO
Eureka! McConnell Science Museum – Grand Junction, CO
eBricks Unofficial LEGO Distributor – Grand Junction, CO
